The furniture from Bismarck was placed last Monday. It was badly needed, although the Flat River equipment had been brought over when that school was closed.

The following entered last Monday: Myrtle Sterett of Desloge, Melba Hany and Ava Thurman of Flat River, Verna Hunt of DeLassus, Dorothy Thurman, Hilbert Thumore and Marvin Meyer of Farmington. Several more have promised for next Monday and several for the following Monday.

COUNTY SCHOOL NOTES

We're off. Another great drive is started. May it prove fruitful. May every school keep the faith and do its full duty at this critical time in the nation's history. May every teacher realize the full responsibility of the call to duty and become a throbbing element in the mighty preparations under way for the establishment of a world democracy.

County Agricultural Agent Foard has sent out a circular letter to all rural teachers urging the organization of one or two boys' and girls' clubs in each school. He intends to reach the teachers of agriculture in our town high schools with a somewhat similar letter later.

Prin. E. V. Abernathy of the Farmington High School on last Monday took his class in agriculture to the farm of T. B. Chandler for an inspection of practical, scientific farming methods. Mr. Chandler is really doing a wonderful work on his "forty" and the members of the class were greatly impressed by his mastery system of farm management.

Clerk Thos. Morris of the Patton Mountain district reports the new school building about ready for occupancy. The people of the district have had an uphill fight for a building and are rejoicing in their triumph. Earl Chambers of Bellevue will teach the Patton Mountain school this year.

The schools of the county were well represented at the great patriotic demonstration given in honor of our soldier boys on last Friday. To participate in the activities of such an occasion was in itself educational and the solemn teachings of the day will forever remain engraved on the memories of those who were thus engaged.

M. U. TO REFUND LATE STUDENTS' FEES

Nearly 2,000 students had enrolled at the University of Missouri before the period of registration ended, and prospects were that late enrollment would bring the total to within a small percentage of the number here last year. Many prospective students are delayed on account of farm work and for war reasons. Because of this the University will until November 1 refund the usual late registration fee of $5 where good reason for lateness is shown.

In his opening address of the new University year, President A. Ross Hill admonished students to do their best work and not be slackers while their older brothers are giving their all for their country. Regular class-work in all the departments of the University began Thursday morning, September 20. Special attention will be given to those delayed in enrolling so that they may get all the benefits of their courses.

Those pro-kaiser peace conventions apparently have no place to but out.

Autocracy is as wise as serpents and as harmless as forty-two centimeter guns.

Carnival

The preparations for the Carnival of the school children of Farmington are complete and by the time this paper reaches the hands of its readers, the exhibits will be coming in and being placed by the committee in charge.

The gymnasium room at the High School is to be used for the display, with the lunch rooms adjoining for the overflow. The committees in charge are:

General Superintendent, Mrs. George Patton.

Clerk of Entries, Mrs. Long, with Mrs. Paul Cayce, Mrs. Fred Karsch and Miss Marion Giessing as assistants.

Committee on Arrangements, Mrs. A. Jones, Mrs. Johns, Miss Roberta Tetley and Mr. Abernathy.

Committee on Sewing, Miss Jacobs and Miss Irene Lang.

Committee on Baking, Mrs. John Karsch and Miss Anna Craig.

Committee on Canned Goods, Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs. Will Lang.

Committee on Decorations, Miss Anna Butterfield.

Mr. Foard and Mr. Hensley of the Farm Bureau and Miss Brucher of Esther will act as judges of the vegetable display, and Miss Brucher, Mrs. Eaton and Mrs. Tate, of the canning, baking and sewing.

Entries will begin Thursday at 10 o'clock, and will close at noon Friday.

The premiums for the general display of vegetables and canning have been given by the School Board; for the single entries of vegetables, by the Commercial Club; for the single entries, by the merchants of town; for the baking and sewing, by the Monday, Fortnightly and Civic Clubs, the U. D. C. and the Navy League. The premiums will all be cash, except those for the canning, which will be dainty articles donated by the merchants. No premium will have a smaller value than 50 cents.

The Carnival will open at 2:30 Friday afternoon, Sept. 28th, and continue through the evening, and will re-open Saturday at 10 o'clock and remain throughout the day.

The premiums will be awarded before the rooms are opened to the public.

During Friday evening, beginning at 7:30, a short program will be given, including music on the Victrola, a short talk by Prof. Johns, an address by Mr. Foard on "Who's Who in the Garden," and the best of those whose displays have received first premium, an honorable mention.

FARM NOTES

Prepared by A. I. Foard, Co. Agent.

Orchard Spraying Pays

The orchards of A. K. Stevenson, Charley Westmeyer, Wm. Rosenstengel and Frank Graham were sprayed last spring under the direction of the County Agent. One or two trees in each orchard were left unsprayed. The sprayed trees in each orchard are loaded with clean fruit, while the unsprayed ones are practically failures both in yield and quality of fruit. The men are satisfied the work has paid many times over.

Boys' and Girls' Clubs

The clubs open for boys and girls this fall are: Grain judging, stock judging, poultry, sewing and baking. School teachers and community leaders should organize a club for young boys and girls. For particulars write or call the County Agent.

Boys Can Grow Corn

Milton Menge, a member of the Boys' Corn Growers Club, has grown a fine acre of corn in spite of the fact that he has been sick nearly all summer. The County Agent visited his acre last Saturday and predicts that he will push yield way up toward the hundred bushel mark. Other members of the Corn Growers Club are: Everett Rion, Paul Perrett, Coral Waller and Harry Helber.

Boys' and Girls' Holstein Calf Club to Hold Show

Arrangements are being made by C. H. Menge, local leader of the Holstein Calf Club, to hold a calf show this fall and award prizes to the club boy or girl whose calf scores the highest. This calf show will probably be held at the Independence school and every boy and girl belonging to the club will enter his or her calf.

Rural Product Shows in the School

All rural school teachers are being requested by the County School Superintendent and County Agent to hold an agricultural product show in their school this fall. This has been a fine crop year and the boys and girls should be allowed to show and display the products from their father's farm. A Friday afternoon can be devoted to the work. The patrons can be invited in and an appropriate program rendered. Blue ribbon prizes should be awarded.

Soil Terraces Save the Washing

Kinkead Brothers and J. W. Buck have completed the soil terraces that were
